The First 100 Days of a Victorian Liberal and Nationals Government

Electing a Liberal and Nationals Government will mean immediate change and give Victoria a fresh start.

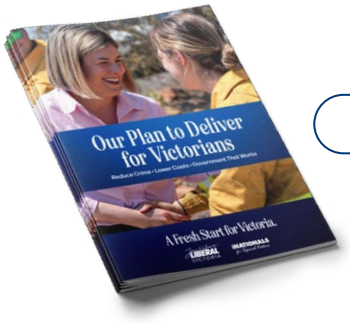

We will not waste a minute implementing our commonsense plan to reduce crime, lower costs for families and get government working again.

Talking to people across Victoria there is a real sense of desperation and urgency for change to restore common sense and integrity to the Victorian Government.

We want to be upfront with Victorians that we are not just here to fight an election. We are here to actually deliver good government and we're focused on doing that from day one. We don't have a moment to waste, so we're doing all that work now.

If we are elected, in our first month in government we will begin recruitment of 3,000 extra police, pass legislation strengthening our bail and sentencing rules, scrap the emergency services tax and cut stamp duty and payroll tax and deliver an enhanced Royal Commission.

Fixing Victoria will not be easy. It will require responsible and disciplined decisions, but every decision we make will be guided by one simple principle: putting Victorians first.

- Immediately recall Parliament to sit leading up to Christmas (including Christmas Eve if required) to pass legislation implementing a one strike rule for bail and Adult Crime, Adult Time.
- Pass priority tax legislation to abolish the emergency services tax, the schools tax and GP tax.
- Direct Service Victoria to prepare for the implementation of the $50 weekly toll cap.
- Deliver an enhanced Royal Commission into corruption.
- Commence an immediate review of Suburban Rail Loop contracts as well as construction and finance arrangements.
- Begin implementation of the 25 per cent Fair Share Guarantee for regional infrastructure.

First 100 Days

- Commence recruitment of 200 additional PSOs and work to restore them to train stations abandoned under Labor.
- Deliver an honest budget update, revealing the true state of Victoria's finances under Labor.
- Direct the Department of Treasury and Finance to commence development of a real-time public expenditure tracker.
- Introduce the first Financial Integrity Bill to establish a Charter of Budget Honesty.
- Establish Construction Enforcement Victoria.
- Introduce a public order package to restore move-on laws and re-establish exclusion orders for repeat offenders.
- Introduce a second justice package to protect emergency service workers for the entirety of their shifts and limit the scope and misuse of court suppression orders.
- Begin eliminating 1 million potholes across the state's road network.
- Reverse Labor's gas appliance bans and invite gas producers to propose conventional gas exploration opportunities to bring down power bills for Victorian homes and businesses.
- Introduce legislation to repeal Labor's divisive treaty to save $1 billion over a decade.
- Introduce legislation to restore farmer rights, restoring VCAT appeals and removing Labor's draconian compulsory acquisition laws.
- Scrap VNI West and begin the review of the state's transmission plan and its impact bills for Victorian homes and businesses.
- Protect essential services and frontline workers by implementing a hiring freeze on back-office roles.
- Introduce legislation to scrap Labor's Activity Centres.
